ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER REGARDING TOLLING OF DEADLINES
IN CASES AND ADVERSARY PROCEEDINGS IN WHICH A GOVERNMENT LAWYER IS A PARTICIPANT DUE TO LAPSE IN APPROPRIATIONS/PARTIAL GOVERNMENT SHUTDOWN

Pursuant to the Anti-Deficiency Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 1341, 1342, upon a lapse in appropriations, lawyers employed by the federal government to represent the agencies and interests of the federal government may be barred from continuing that representation for the duration of the lapse. An appropriation or continuing resolution having not been enacted by 11:59 p.m. December 21, 2018, and such appropriation or continuing resolution not having been enacted before the date and time of the entry of this Order, in order to facilitate the management of this Court’s docket, it is hereby

ORDERED: Absent other direction or order of the Court, in a case or adversary proceeding in which a party is represented by a lawyer employed by the federal government, the obligation of that party to comply with the filing requirements set forth in the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Local Rules of Civil Procedure of the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut, the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure for the District of Connecticut, a

Scheduling Order, an Order setting deadlines, or a Notice of Proof of Claim bar date, is tolled for the duration of the lapse. The time to comply will resume running two business days after a budget appropriation is enacted into law, and it is further ORDERED: In any case or adversary proceeding subject to this order, the obligation of other parties to comply with the filing requirements set forth in the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Local Rules of Civil Procedure of the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut, the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure for the District of Connecticut, a Scheduling Order, an Order setting deadlines, or a Notice of Proof of Claim bar date, remains in effect.

Dated at Bridgeport, Connecticut this 11th day of January, 2019.

Julie A. Manning
Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge
District of Connecticut
